DRI Professional Services Forms Management Partnership with MPI Heartland

CHICAGO – (March 25, 2019)— DRI Professional Services has been selected by Meeting Professionals International-Heartland Chapter (MPI Heartland) to provide full management services for the association.

In the new partnership with MPI Heartland DPS will provide assistance with administration, customer service, finance and accounting, membership, marketing, sales, web site and social media, and publications. The DPS team assigned to the MPI-Heartland engagement collectively has nearly 85 years of experience in the association, meetings and hospitality industries.

MPI Heartland brings together meeting planners and suppliers from across Iowa and Nebraska for education, networking, professional development and charitable involvement. The chapter hosts numerous events and volunteer opportunities throughout the year.

“We are very excited to be working with such a universally respected, high-energy association like MPI-Heartland,” said DPS CEO Tyler Howes. “We are honored to be selected as their full-service management team and to be a part of their very bright future.” DPS has also been selected to manage the MPI Chicago Area Chapter.

“We are excited about our new partnership with DPS,” said Cheryl Math, President of MPI Heartland. “The team is passionate about our industry and brings a new and exciting perspectives to our chapter.”
